

Contribution ID: 217

Type: Talk

HPC Topics in African University Courses

Wednesday, 6 December 2017 13:30 (1h 30m)

This session will look at current efforts and success in include HPC topics in courses at African universities, including teaching strategies and methodologies. The challenges regarding implementation of HPC education in an African context will be discussed as well solutions and the next steps forward. A key goal is building and strengthening a community around HPC education in Africa.

HPC content

This session will look at current efforts and success in include HPC topics in courses at African universities, including teaching strategies and methodologies. The challenges regarding implementation of HPC education in an African context will be discussed as well solutions and the next steps forward. A key goal is building and strengthening a community around HPC education in Africa.

Primary author: Dr MOTSHEGWA, Tshiamo (University Of Botswana)

Co-author: Prof. BAGULA, Antoine (UWC)

Session Classification: HPC Education BoF

Track Classification: B.o.F